

NATIONAL CHEMISTRY WEEK MINIGRANTS

This year's National Chemistry Week is October 18-24, 2015 with the theme "Chemistry Colors Our World!" exploring the chemistry of food colors, fireworks, dyes, pigments, and light. The South Carolina Section offers a minigrant program to sponsor NCW activities for public outreach or to support teacher education related to celebrating National Chemistry Week within the section (amounts up to $300). Minigrant award deadline is September 20. Guidelines and an application form may be found at www.sc-ac.org/grants.htm. A final report is due by December 15.

SERMACS 2016

Mark your calendars now for the Southeast Regional Meeting of the American Chemical Society to be held at the Columbia Metropolitan Convention Center October 23-26, 2016. Visit our website at www.sermacs2016.org and like our Facebook page at <https://www.facebook.com/SERMACS2016>.

Besides the opportunities for posters, oral presentations, and exhibits there will be a graduate school fair; special events for Young Chemist, Minority Chemists, and Women Chemists; and an exciting program for undergraduates and high school teachers as well as social events.

Please support SERMACS/SWRM 2015 in Memphis, November 4-7 (a joint meeting with the Southwest Region). For SC-ACS section students (high school, graduate, or undergraduate) attending SERMACS 2015, the SERMACS 2016 organizing committee is offering you a free t-shirt to help us advertise our upcoming meeting in Columbia. Orders must be placed no later than October 1. The shirts will feature the official SERMACS 2016 logo. All recipients of a t-shirt will be asked to wear them at least one day at the Memphis meeting. To order please email the student's name, t-shirt size, and institution to scsection.acs@gmail.com.
